Oh good, I'm afraid I can't call your face to mind either, although I've heard your name.

We are currently revising the ERA (and HHRA, both are in one document) in response to comments from reviewers. But they are mainly related to wording and how the story is told, rather than changes to the analysis. Would you like to take a chance on this draft? I can send it electronically. Alternatively, if you would like to concentrate on the analysis, I can send the relevant tables rather than the text.

Alice,

I'm on the NRRB, I work out of Edison, not sure if we ever met, I do not get into NYC much anymore, but we may have - my memory is not always what it should be. Anyway, is there an easy way for me to get a copy/access to the ERA for the Passaic River - electronic, I do not want paper I would live without it if it had to be paper.. I can download it if it is on some site.

I would just like to look through the details of the risk estimates.

Thanks

mark
